Mr. Don Lee retires as CFO and will become a consultant to the Group

Hong Kong, 1 April 2020 – Stella International Holdings Limited (“Stella” or the “Group”; SEHK: 1836), a leading developer, manufacturer and retailer of quality footwear and leather goods, today announced that Mr. Andrew Tam will succeed Mr. Don Lee as the Group’s Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”) following Mr. Lee’s retirement, with effect from 1 April 2020.

Mr. Tam has more than 20 years of experience in corporate finance advisory, investment banking and investment management. Prior to joining Stella, he was with Li & Fung Limited (a listed company at the Hong Kong Stock Exchange), where he was a member of senior management for its corporate finance, financial planning and accounting, treasury and investor relations functions. Mr. Tam holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics awarded by the University of California at Berkeley, the United States and a Master Degree of Business Administration awarded by Harvard University, the United States.

Mr. Lee, having served Stella for more than 13 years, will be appointed as a consultant to the Group after his retirement from the position of CFO. Mr. Lee will help ensure a smooth transition of this key financial role and will continue to advise Stella’s top management, leveraging his 40 years of experience in the fields of corporate and financial management.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, Mr. Lawrence Chen, Chairman of the Group, said, “We are extremely grateful for Don’s invaluable contribution to Stella’s growth and success over the course of his tenure. At the same time, we warmly welcome Andrew to our team as we continue to safeguard our operational stability in 2020 while delivering sustainable returns to our shareholders.”
